NEWS IN BRIEF

Student died

Assam Rising
Guwahati, May 24:
A student died after being hit by a speedy bus in Assam's Tamulpur on Wednesday morning while she was on her way to the tuition on Wednesday morning. The unfortunate incident was reported in Dwarakuchi area where the student of Class 10 was on her way to tuition class when a bus, bearing the registration number AS25 AC 5970, hit her. She died on the spot, sources informed. Meanwhile, the infuriated locals blocked the Rangia-Hutan National Highway after the tragic incident not allowing the police and authorities to take the body.

Gold biscuits seized

Assam Rising
Guwahati, May 24:
Government railway police (GRP) seized 10 gold biscuits from a person at the Kamakhya Railway Station in Guwahati on Wednesday. As per initial reports, the man was held from Kaziranga Express by GRP officials who received information of a smuggling bid. The accused was identified as Bikash Goyal, a resident of Rohini in Delhi and was trying to smuggle the gold biscuits there. According to information received, Goyal had received the package of gold biscuits from a person in front of Vishal outlet Guwahati's Patil Bazar area. He was headed to Delhi when GRP officials caught him from the train at the Kamakhya Railway Station. He was taken in for questioning but is yet to reveal the name of the person who had handed him the package.

Assam, Meghalaya border talks CMs of both states to visit disputed areas

Assam Rising
Guwahati, May 24:

The Chief Minister level meeting on Assam-Meghalaya border dispute held in Guwahati today decided to have joint visits by the Chief Ministers to the areas of Karbi Anglong and West Jaintia Hills to find out an amicable solution to the inter-state border disputes. The meeting was held in the State Guest House, Koinadhora where Assam Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma along with his Meghalaya counterpart Conrad K. Sangma discussed at length the prevailing situation along the inter-state border and discussed the outstanding border issues in a very cordial and friendly atmosphere. It may be noted that Assam and Meghalaya had 12 areas of disputes with regard to their interstate boundaries and six areas have already been resolved. Today's Chief Minister level meeting was the first after Conrad K. Sangma started his second stint as the Chief Minister of Meghalaya. The meeting had thorough discussion on border disputes in six areas as Dr. Sarma and his Meghalaya counterpart decided to visit areas of Assam's Karbi Anglong district and Meghalaya's West Jaintia district in June. Their visit to the district

SI Jonmoni Death Case : Protests Erupt in Streets of Assam

Assam Rising
Guwahati, May 24:

Thousands of protesters stormed the streets in several parts of the state seeking justice for the Mokrolong sub-inspector Jonmoni Rabha on Wednesday. In Assam's Kokrajhar, under the aegis of All Bodo Students Union (ABSU), protesters staged road blockade at the National Highway in Gossaigaon. Protesters chanted slogans demanding justice for the deceased cop Jonmoni Rabha. They also demanded suspension and arrest of transferred Superintendent of police Leena Doley. A similar situation was witnessed in the Udalguri and Bongaigaon districts of Assam earlier today. In Chaygaon's Bamanigaon under Kamrup district of Assam, protesters expressed their strong rage over the suspicious death of the sub-inspector Jonmoni Rabha, of late. They demanded strong and severe action against the culprits involved in the death of the deceased police officer

Don't link it to politics, HM says on new Parliament inauguration

New Delhi, May 24:

Union Home Minister Amit Shah Wednesday said the inauguration of the new Parliament on Sunday by Prime Minister Narendra Modi should not be linked with politics, reacting to Opposition parties announcing a boycott of the event. Shah was addressing a press conference to announce the government's plan to hand over a sacred sceptre to Modi during the new Parliament's inauguration. The gold-plated sceptre was given to Jawaharlal Nehru by priests from Tamil Nadu on the eve of Independence to mark the transfer of power from the British. On Sunday, after being handed to the PM at a ceremony, the sceptre would be displayed in the new Lok Sabha, he said. With several Opposition parties saying they would boycott the inauguration as the President had been left out of the proceedings, the home minister was asked how the Opposition would view the
